Social, Cultural and Sports

You have the right to

The University of Malta does not have mechanisms in place to focus on social, cultural and sports initiatives, therefore students have no direct way of being involved.

Equality and Inclusion

You have the right to

The University of Malta does cater for this by way of multiple committees set up by Senate and Council, which tend to have a student representative appointed. However, the appointment of said representative is not set anywhere in writing and is done as a courtesy towards the student body.

This Charter is part of the project entitled Students Participation Without Borders (STUPS), a project co-funded by the Erasmus + Programme of the European Union.
